ESCP Europe

The food and drink industry is the EU's largest and most important agricultural sector. Statistics show that this business is increasing steadily. In the last 10 years, European food and drink exports have doubled and this in times when everybody is talking about the crisis. The European food and beverage industry is generally competitive on a global scale, with the Italian and French agri-food segment renowned as an international reference model. These two countries produce high quality, healthy and safe food which makes them deserving of their worldwide reputation for excellence. Food and beverages are among the most important things for a country and will always be in high demand. As such, jobs in this sector are less susceptible to the whims of the economy. In this context of positive growth trend, the food and beverage sector offers great opportunities for strong careers for passionate people interested in this field.
